

Ask Pope Leo XIV to Visit Gaza

To Pope Leo XIV:

Congratulations on your new position, and thank you for having already spoken in support of ending all wars. We believe it could be very beneficial for the cause of peace, and in particular the lives of the people of Palestine, if you were to visit Gaza right away. Will you please consider it?

Cory Alperstein	Newton Center	MA	The conscience of the world needs awakening. We need to move from outrage and frustration to action. A visit there will force the powers that continue this obscene, inhumane, racist and genocidal destruction to end. Full stop. No more weapons, No more war. Open the gates.
Chris Darling	Richmond	CA
Jane Clevenger	Milton	DE	I think having the Pope visit the site of genocide inflicted by netanyahu would be very powerful. The Palestinians are being slaughtered and sacrificed by a unlawful government in Israel.

Huda Giddens	Seattle	WA	In the true spirit of St. Peter (the founder of the Papacy) I humbly ask your Reverence to make serious plans to visit Gaza - and talk with the Gazans. Please let us know what you see - and hear. Your taking this first step, in your tenure as Pope, is very significant to millions of people - Christian people around the world, including Palestinian Christians. But most importantly, it speaks volumes to our Muslim friends that Christianity is relevant to all people. PLEASE GO WITHOUT HESITATION. The world's eyes are on you, wondering whether you care about humanity. With many, many thanks for your consideration. (Mrs. H. Giddens)

I know that the Church cannot easily take sides in political disputes. I believe, however, that the events in Gaza will be remembered for generations as an epochal eruption of abysmal evil. The suffering of the Palestinians is unimaingable. The moral failure of Israel and the USA is terrifying. The witness of the suffering Love of Jesus Christ in this situation is indispensable. I pray that you will go to Gaza in the name of the God who creates and sustains every human being. Thank you, Gabriel Alkon

Priscilla Read	Chicago	IL	Many Christians of all denominations and people of other faiths had enormous respect and affection for Pope Francis because he demonstrated consistently his commitment to inclusivity and his compassion. His nightly calls to Gaza touched deeply not only Gazans but others around the world who have been heart-broken that Christian churches in general have failed to stand up against genocide, war crimes, and crimes against humanity. You have already spoken about Gaza. We urge you to go to Gaza to draw global attention to the others being committed there. It would mean so much to Gazans in particular and Palestinians more generally who feel that the world has abandoned them. Your voice has tremendous resonance everywhere.

THIS IS NOT WHAT HE HAS MADE HER A GREAT COUNTRY TO BE. HIS HEART IS BREAKING TO SEE HOW AMERICA HAS STRAYED DOWN THIS PATH OF EVIL AND DISOBEDIENCE TO HIS LAWS. HE HAS NOT GIVEN THEM THE BLESSINGS AND POWER TO TRAMPLE ON ANY OF HIS CHILDREN THROUGHOUT THE WORLD. IF AMERICA DOES NOT TURN FROM HER WICKED WAYS, SHE SHALL BE PUNISHED. Claudia Ryan	Englewood	CO	It is past time for ALL denominations of faith to stop whispering and to speak loudly about what is happening; to condemn what is happening; to take a defiant stance against what is happening so that more people will feel safe to speak out, knowing that the church will stand behind us. The United States needs a wake up call. Both Republicans and Democrats are duplicitous in this GENOCIDE. Prayers are not sufficient. BE BOLD! If not, the world will be at war with no moral compass. Preaching doctrine moves nothing. ACTION is necessary. If All denominations will join forces to stand up against Trump, Israel, the corrupt congress, the corrupt Supreme Court, the corrupt executive branch, WE WILL COME! No more blessings and prayers, move as Christ DID!

I am in distress daily knowing when I eat, when I sleep, when I have peaceful moments in my life, that the people of Gaza and the West Bank have NONE of these things. They desperately need to get the Israeli forces and control OUT of their lives so water, food, fuel, medicine, humanitarian aid to flow in UNFETTERED. They are now suffering the horrific death due to lack of food and water. A visit from you might provide the focus of the world onto the suffering happening there, and perhaps break the logjam that has prevented the world from pushing out the occupying forces. The only hope for Palestinian survival rests with the free flow of world aid in to them, and a ceasefire to stop the brutal bombing on their daily lives.

Badre Rachidi	Washington	DC	I,Äm deeply troubled by the ongoing Israeli genocide of people in Gaza and the suffering of Palestinians, including the targeting of churches and Christian communities. The suffering of people in Gaza is unimaginable, and I find myself disheartened by what seems like muted responses from many Christian leaders, including the Pope. As followers of Christ, shouldn,Ät our faith compel us to speak out more boldly against injustice and the killing of people? I,Äm also deeply concern about how certain Scripture readings and homilies in the Mass may inadvertently emphasize allegiance to the Kingdom of Israel in a way that overshadows the Gospel,Äs call to the Kingdom of God. I worry that this has contributed to an uncritical alignment with political Zionism among many Christians, distracting from Christ,Äs teachings on justice, mercy, and solidarity with the oppressed.

Philip Farah	Vienna	VA	I respectfully ask your Holiness to visit Gaza to show your solidarity with the non-combatant victims of Israel,Ãs genocidal war against my people. I still have relatives sheltering in St Porphyrios Church and the Church of the Holy Family. One of my relatives sheltering at the Church of the Holy family, Elham Farah, was shot by an Israeli sniper and bled for hours. She was calling for help on her mobile phone but anyone trying to rescue her was shot at. She bled to death. The Vatican News reported this crime, and also Israel,Ãs killing of two other women in cold blood inside the compound of the Holy Family. Pope Francis called this terrorism. Your visiting Gaza would be the most powerful gesture any human could do to influence civil society and governments around the world to take real actions to stop Israel,Ãs indiscriminate killing of civilians with lethal weapons, but also through the withholding of food, water, medicine, and fuel. Every day counts. Please visit Gaza now!

Luther Norman	Seattle	WA	Pope Leo XIV: in view of all the suffering that has been going on in Gaza, please take the time to visit on your tour of the strip. For months human rights workers and medical volunteers have been fired upon and special rights missions have been barricaded, so their supplies have not been allowed. As Christ has instructed us, 'suffer the little children' and any group considered an enemy is subject to treatment and acceptance of the milk of human kindness. Please remember the children and other innocents in your prayers. Respectfully,

As an American woman I was one of the first to arrive in his village where I was met with incredible hospitality and curiosity. I had never felt such a welcome. These days my two daughters would probably not be allowed entry by Israel. It is a real tragedy that in the very place where God's son walked there is such hate and violence. I pray that you may be able to influence mankind to do better. Bless you!

Judy Jones	Signal Mountain	TN	I have recently taken a course in Israeli and Palestinian relations. And as an American I am ashamed and appalled at U.S.'s abetting of Israeli's treatment and appropriation of Palestinian people's lands and culture. The American population has blindly swallowed the propaganda fed to them by the media and politicians (most of whom receive APAC money). The Zionists' endgame since early 20th century is totality of Palestine be turned into 'Israel'. Their guiding tenet is 'from the river to the sea', from Jordan River to the Mediterranean. If you were to see the reality and inform the world of what is the truth, perhaps it would stop this madness.

Brenda Balanda	Inverness	CA	The world desperately needs your presence and guidance on the horrible situation in Gaza. The amoral slaughter of children, women, the elderly -- even babies -- is not remotely acceptable, for any reason. Certainly not for the 'chosen people' to create their exclusively Jewish fascist state, from which they would no doubt continue to annex and subjugate as much of the middle east as they chose, including Iran. The perpetrators of this psychopathic agenda need to be educated on appropriate behavior toward their fellow human beings -- starting with EVERYONE being equal in the eyes of the creator. There are no 'chosen people', who deserve to rule others. The current rabid leaders of Israel need to be reined-in and/or removed before they cause a nuclear holocaust. Please have the courage to travel to Gaza. I realize it is asking a lot of one man, but you were made the Pope at this crucial moment for a reason. Half a million starving. 57,000 of them children. 3500 of them under age five who are so close to death they may die by the time you read this. Someone of power needs to press for permanent ceasefire in Gaza. And withdrawal of all Israeli troops from Gaza. Both U.S. Presidents Biden and Trump have treated Gaza and Palestinians like a pawn in their chess game of power. Izz Say	Charlotte	NC	I greet you in peace and compassion, and with the deepest respect for your enduring commitment to justice, mercy, and human dignity across the world. I write to you as a humble witness to the profound suffering of the Palestinian people in Gaza and Palestine. In this time of unprecedented genocide,Ämarked by the loss of innocent lives, the devastation of homes and hospitals, and the anguish of families torn apart,Äwe turn to you not only as a moral and spiritual leader but as a beacon of hope in a world darkened by conflict. Mosques and churches alike were not spared. The people of Gaza, many of them children, live under conditions that defy human conscience. Beyond the physical destruction, there is a deep yearning for compassion, solidarity, and the presence of someone who can amplify their cries for peace before the conscience of the world. Therefore, I respectfully urge you to consider visiting the Gaza & West Bank this summer. Your presence, even for a brief moment is key to justice

This is a time when an old order of colonization, untrammled abuse of power and the diminishment of one man's life by another, and a new order conceived in peace and justice, and guarded by law, are in direct contravention. In this obscenely violent time where wars routinely target civilian populations, in a time when it seems no one is willing to stand up for people outside their own fiefdom, this is a time when a powerful man taking a public stand for humanity would make a real difference.
Carolyn Birden	New York	NY	While it may not be feasible for you to actually visit Gaza, it would send a powerful message to non-Catholics and Catholics alike if you could speak out, or even send a representative to Gaza: children are being murdered because they might grow up and ask what happened to their families. You have worldwide respect and humanity would appreciate your efforts on behalf of these poor Palestinians, their aids and helpers. Please do what you can and perhaps a little of humanity's good side will be conveyed to the Israeli Prime Minister! Sincerely, Bob Fritsch

The current pope has the chance to act as an ethical leader for the world. The world needs leadership to stop this grotesque genocide.

Eva Moseley	Cambridge	MA	as a Jew who, with my family, had to flee from Vienna because of the Nazis, I'm appalled at what Jews are now, and have been for a long time, doing to the Palestinians. Jews who also had to flee Europe were meant to 'share the land' with the indigenous people (some also Jews but not Zionists--not wanting a Jewish state), but the dominant ones were determined to drive the Palestinians out and have been doing that, especially since the Nakba of 1948, which continues to this day, again intensified since October 2023. The October 2023 attack by Hamas was, i think, wicked and foolish but understandable.

Pope LeoXIV must immediately go to the concentration camp called Gaza where more than 2 million Palestinians face imminent starvation, and constant bombing and slaughter. I believe that if the Holy Father went, and stayed in Gaza, Israel's bombing would stop, and the blockade of food , water, and medicines would cease. Israel , with US financial and military support, plans to send thousands more soldiers into Gaza , and begin the Final Solution. Palestinians will be killed or forced to leave their homeland. Julie Meyerson	Sunnyvale	CA	I am the daughter of a Catholic woman and a Jewish man. You may be happy to hear that they chose to raise me Catholic, I was confirmed in 2007 in the new basilica in San Jose CA and continue to attend the Church of the Resurrection in Sunnyside. However I do not shy away from my Jewish heritage, and the country of Israel would love for me to move there and Jewify their country. Please do not fall victim to their false claims. They are a country, what they do they do for political and not religious reasons. What they claim to do for the Jewish people is not for us. We have been giving no opportunity to voice our concerns to them, no way to get them to listen to the fact that many Jews are against the genocide in Gaza. The Jewish people are not a monolith. There are some who approve of a strong military presence in the Palestinian territories, and many who do not. If you find you want to learn more about the Jewish resistance, please check out Jewish Voices for Peace.

Kate Marshall	Wheeling	WV	Dear Pope Leo XIV, Jesus said that He is the Bread of Life and you my dear Pope represent His offering of Himself to the world. The same Jesus, recognized the physical hunger of the people before him. Please bring His Presence and YOUR lunch to Gaza that the children might be fed! Every Catholic Social Teaching, every Work of Mercy, every Angel of a child, if Christ were not enough, begs these children of Gaza and their families be fed both Spiritually and Physically. It might seem impossible. It might seem inconceivable that when all has run out, that anything could change..but my dear Pope, Please pray, and then in the words of Our Lady , "Do whatever He tells you!". The same angels that look at you as you offer Mass, will also be with you in Gaza. May His Kingdom Come. Peace Your Sister, Kate Marshall Wheeling, WV

Would Jesus have remained silent or minced words, speaking as though there are two warring sides when the apartheid and a slow genocide had been occurring long before October 7th and is now the flat-out extermination of hundreds of thousands of innocent people (will it be millions?)? To call for a ceasefire is good, but let us not ignore the fact that even before October 7th, from 2008 through September of 2023, Israel killed and injured more than 20 Palestinians for every Israeli who had been killed or injured. PLEASE, in the name of Christ, condemn this extermination thunderously. Please do not betray the crucified Christ by implying he wasn't serious or was somehow equally at fault for his own crucifixion - because that is what you will be doing if you do not call this evil what it is.

No matter how much the Israeli government wants to be seen as the Jewish people, it is not. The Jewish people in Israel and the world are appalled by the Israeli government action but in many instances are cowed into keep silent to avoid the Israeli insistence that to oppose their actions is anti-semitic, which is a lie. Please go to Gaza to stop the Israeli government genocide to as a solution to the real conflict the world has imposed upon the people of Paliestine and the Jews in Israel by forcing the Palestinians to bear the cost of the world's reparations of centuries of anti-semitism. David States	Santa Cruz	CA	Please go to Gaza to look at what has happened there. If you then feel compassion for these people, as I am confident you will, please lobby for the end of destruction of the Palestinian people and for a lasting peace. My plea does NOT infer in any way a condemnation of Jews, but rather a humanitarian hope to stop the bloodshed and cycle of hate that we know exists in the middle east. Thank you in advance. David States

These atrocities are recriminate of when Nazi Germany in WW2 was committing genocide of whole nations of people . I would ask for you our new Pope to look and ask that these atrocities end and that no more arms are sent to Israel by the United States that are continuing the genocide .
